Baltimore Science Fiction Society's

Bobby Gear Memorial Charity Auction
For BSFS Books for Kids at Balticon

The auction during the half time show of the masquerade raised $1600.00 for the BSFS Books for Kids program which will be used by a Maryland School to provide additional reading books to their students.

GET YOUR SHAME

Con-Registration has a ribbon this year that reads "Shame" for people who lose their badge and need a new one. However, the ribbon is so cool looking on the badge people who have not lost their badge want one. So... registration will provide a "Shame" ribbon if you want one as long as you walk up to them pretend to lose your badge (but really hand it to them) and donate at least $2.00 to the BSFS Books for Kids Fund.

Deals and Discounts at the Con

LoneStarCon 3 (71st Worldcon) will be holding a sale over Memorial Day weekend, $20.00 off Adult Attending (or upgrading) admissions. Just stop by their fan table at Balticon 47
