Balticon Program Updates

THANK YOU FOR COMING!

We hope you are having a wonderful time at Balticon 50. It is by far the largest and most complex Balticon in our fifty years of producing it, while working with a new hotel and staff. If there have been bumps in the road for you this weekend, we sincerely apologize for any difficulties, and we very much appreciate your patience. We greatly appreciate those who have made us aware of specific issues, and we have been working throughout the weekend to address them all. We aggressively work throughout the year between cons to make sure that each con runs more smoothly than the last. We regret that some avoidable issues, particularly in scheduling, created more challenges than usual this year. Again, we appreciate your good humor and patience as we have struggled through them. We thank the Renaissance Harborplace Hotel for providing a quality venue for Balticon.
